

A Billionaire for Christmas

by Alison Reid

She was left at the altar.

He's about to marry for money.

Neither of them expected to find love in a snowstorm.

Eliza Preston boards a plane to Europe with a broken heart and a stolen honeymoon. After her fiancé abandons her on their wedding day, she refuses to fall apart—instead, she chooses herself. A solo trip to St. Moritz is supposed to be her fresh start.

She never expected to collide with a stranger who changes everything.

Christian Harrington has it all—wealth, power, and a billion-dollar inheritance within reach... if he marries the right woman. His engagement is a business deal, his future already decided.

Until one impulsive moment on the slopes throws him into a snowstorm... and into Eliza's world.

Stranded together in a remote mountain cabin, the walls between them begin to crack.

Secrets are kept. Truths are blurred. And the chemistry between them burns hotter than the fire keeping them alive.

Because for the first time in his life, Christian doesn't want the empire.

He wants her.

But when the storm clears, reality will come crashing back.

A fiancée.

A fortune.

A choice that could cost everything.

And a love that might be worth losing it all.

Tropes:

-  Billionaire Hero
-  Snowed In
-  Forced Proximity
-  Left at the Altar
-  He Falls First
-  Protective Hero
-  Surprise Pregnancy

Reader Guide:

-  Heat: ★★★★★☆
-  Emotion: ★★★★★☆
-  Angst: ★★★★★☆
-  Holiday Romance
-  Dual POV
-  Open-Door Romance
-  No Cheating
-  Guaranteed HEA