

Silent Witness

by Alison Reid

She trusted everyone who stood beside her... until one night changed everything.

Phoebe Sterling has spent her life surrounded by love. As the heiress to the powerful Winslow family, she has everything she could ever want—a devoted husband, a close-knit family, and the grandfather who has protected her since she was fifteen years old.

At Henry Winslow's eightieth birthday celebration, the future seems brighter than ever.

Until Phoebe discovers the unthinkable.

Her husband, Daniel, is having an affair.

With the one person she never imagined would betray her.

Moments later, Phoebe is found unconscious at the bottom of the grand staircase, fighting for her life. Everyone believes it was a tragic accident... except Spencer Matthews.

Henry's trusted lawyer has loved Phoebe for years, even when he knew she could never be his. As questions begin to mount, Spencer becomes convinced there is far more to that night than anyone is willing to admit.

Because accidents don't leave so many secrets behind.

As lies unravel, loyalties are tested, and greed turns deadly, Phoebe's family must uncover the truth before the people responsible destroy more than one life.

Some betrayals can be forgiven.

Others demand justice.
