

The Billionaire's Secret Son

By Alison Reid

He lost the woman he loved.

Now he's about to discover the son he never knew.

Six years ago, Gabriella Hartley lost everything.

The man she loved walked away without a word after learning she was pregnant. Forced into a loveless marriage by her ruthless father, Gabriella sacrificed her own happiness to protect her unborn son. Now, with her father dead and her cheating husband finally out of her life, she's determined to build a new future—one where no man will ever control her again.

Rafael De Luca has spent six years turning heartbreak into a billion-dollar empire.

He believed Gabriella betrayed him. He believed the child she carried belonged to another man. But a letter from beyond the grave reveals a devastating truth: he was lied to. The little boy he's never met is his son.

Rafael is determined to reclaim the family he never knew he had.

Gabriella has no intention of letting the man who abandoned her back into their lives. It doesn't matter that he never stopped loving her. It doesn't matter that every kiss still feels like coming home. Trust, once shattered, is almost impossible to rebuild.

As dangerous secrets come to light and old enemies refuse to let go, Rafael must prove he's no longer the man who walked away... because this time, he's fighting for the woman he never stopped loving and the son he never knew existed.
