Billionaire Bodyguard – She doesn't need protection. He refuses to leave. Violet Miller is brilliant, controlled, and untouchable in the courtroom—but outside it, someone is watching. Anonymous gifts. Cryptic notes. A presence that's getting closer. She calls it harmless. Her brother calls in a favour. And suddenly, the one man she never wanted to see again is back in her life. Chad Morgan—former Marine, billionaire security expert, and the man who broke her heart with a single lie. Now he's living in her apartment. Watching her every move. Determined to keep her safe... whether she wants him there or not. Because this isn't admiration. It's obsession. And when a single message changes everything—Get rid of the boyfriend.—the danger becomes impossible to ignore. Forced into close quarters, old tension reignites. Stolen glances turn into heated arguments. And the chemistry they tried to bury? It's more explosive than ever. But as the threat escalates, one truth becomes clear—the closer Chad gets to protecting Violet... the harder it is to protect his heart. Because this time, walking away might not be an option. And falling for her again? Could cost them both everything.

Forever Yours – She's done waiting. He's done trusting. And neither of them is ready for what happens next. Celeste Beaumont has spent years doing everything right—building her career, maintaining control, and holding onto a dream that was never hers to keep. But at twenty-five, she's finished waiting for “someday.” It's time to take what she wants. And what she wants... is Andrew Carter. Fresh off a brutal divorce, Andrew has returned to Sydney determined to rebuild his life—with no room for complications, and definitely no interest in beautiful, tempting women who come with risk. Celeste is all risk. Confident. Untouchable. Infuriatingly irresistible. The girl he barely noticed years ago is now a woman he can't ignore—and shouldn't want. She's everything he doesn't trust. And everything he can't stay away from. What begins as tension and temptation quickly spirals into something far more dangerous. Because the more Andrew fights it, the more undeniable their connection becomes. But Celeste isn't looking for forever. And Andrew doesn't believe in it anymore. Until one reckless decision changes everything—and walking away is no longer an option.

The Playboy's Surrender – She came to paradise chasing the wrong man... and found the one who would change everything. When Olivia Clifton arrives on a remote luxury island in the South Pacific, she thinks she already knows how her story will go. She's here for Wyatt Boyd—the boy next door she's loved for years. The one she crossed oceans for. The one who still doesn't see her. But Motukava isn't just paradise. It's a turning point. Because the moment she meets Jack Alden—billionaire owner, notorious playboy, and a man who trusts nothing that looks like love—everything begins to shift. Jack isn't looking for anything real. Olivia isn't looking for him. But he sees her. Not the girl waiting to be chosen. Not the quiet one overlooked. He sees everything. And when Jack offers to help her win Wyatt's attention, it starts as a harmless arrangement—just a game to make another man jealous. Until it stops feeling like a game. Because the more time they spend together, the more dangerous the truth becomes: She was never meant for Wyatt. And Jack was never meant to fall. Now, caught between the man she thought she wanted... and the man who truly sees her... Olivia will have to decide—is she still chasing her past... or ready to surrender to something real?
